Important information

Duty to take reasonable care not to make misrepresentation

This is a consumer insurance contract under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 You have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us. This duty applies when You enter into, renew, extend or vary this contract of insurance.

Before You enter into, renew, extend or vary this contract of insurance We will ask You questions that are relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms. When You answer the questions You must not give a false or misleading account of matters. Your response should tell Us everything that You know about the question. Your response is relevant to whether We offer you insurance and the terms that are offered.

A misrepresentation made fraudulently is made in breach of the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation.

Consequences of failure to take reasonable care not to make misrepresentation

If You do not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If your failure to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Circumstances relevant to your duty

Whether or not You have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation is to be determined with regard to all the relevant circumstances. If We know, or ought to know about Your particular characteristics or circumstances, these characteristics or circumstances are taken into account in determining whether You have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us. Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 the following matters may be taken into account in determining whether You have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation:

- a) the type of consumer insurance contract in question, and its target market;
- b) explanatory material or publicity produced or authorised by Us;
- c) how clear, and how specific, the questions We asked were;
- d) how clearly We communicated to You the importance of answering those questions and the possible consequences of failing to do so;
- e) whether or not an agent/insurance broker was acting for You;
- f) whether the contract was a new contract or was being renewed, extended, varied or reinstated.

You are not to be taken to have made a misrepresentation merely because You:

- a) failed to answer a question; or
- b) gave an obviously incomplete or irrelevant answer to a question.

Important-Statutory Notice – Section 40 Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth)

This notice is provided in connection with but does not form part of this Policy.

This Policy is a 'Claims Made' liability insurance policy. It only provides cover if:

- 1) a Claim is made against You, by some other person, during the Period of Insurance when this Policy is in force; and
- 2) the Claim arises out of circumstances committed, attempted or alleged to have been committed or attempted after the Retroactive Date stipulated in the Policy Schedule.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) applies to this type of Policy. That subsection provides that if the Insured becomes aware, during the period when this Policy is in force (Period of Insurance), of any occurrence or fact which might give rise to a Claim against the Insured by another person, then provided that the Insured notifies Us of the matter before this Policy expires, We may not refuse to indemnify merely because a Claim resulting from the matter is not made against the Insured while this Policy is in force.

If the Insured, inadvertently or otherwise, does not notify the relevant occurrence or facts to Us before the expiry of this Policy, the Insured will not have the benefit of section 40(3) and We may refuse to pay any subsequent Claim, notwithstanding that the events giving rise to it or the circumstances alleged in it may have taken place during the Period of Insurance.

If a Claim is actually made against the Insured by another person during the Period of Insurance but is not notified to Us until after this Policy has expired, We may refuse to pay or may reduce Our payment under this Policy if We have suffered any financial prejudice as a result of the late notification.

Dispute resolution

Our commitment to You

We treat complaints very seriously and believe You have the right to a fair, swift and courteous service at all times. If You are dissatisfied with the service You have received and wish to make a complaint, please contact Us and We will endeavour to resolve the issue as quickly as possible.

This Policy provides You with an overview of the process You can expect ARAG and the Insurer to undertake in order to resolve any complaint that You may have.

Step 1: The first time you raise your concerns or complaint

If You have any concerns or complaints about how Your Claim has been handled, You should in the first instance contact Us via the following.

You can contact us directly:

Phone: (02) 8066 0162

Address: Level 2, 2 Bulletin Place,
Sydney NSW 2000, or

Email: complaints@arag.com.au

We, as agent for the Insurer, aim to resolve the complaint at the time of initial contact. If this is not possible We will commit to responding to Your complaint within fifteen (15) working days of first being notified of the complaint.

To enable Us to consider Your complaint fully and quickly, You will need to provide the following information:

-  an explanation of the situation that led to the complaint;
-  any new information not currently in Our possession that may have a bearing on Our understanding of the complaint; and
-  a statement of any action that You would like Us to take to resolve the complaint

Upon final consideration of Your complaint We will inform You of the proposed resolution and the timeframe We will take to implement such a resolution.

Step 2: Internal Dispute Resolution

If You are not satisfied with Our response to Your complaint, We will escalate it as a dispute and the Insurer's Internal Dispute Resolution Committee will review the matter. The Committee will be independent of the person who initially considered Your complaint.

The Insurer requests that You state the dispute in writing to:

Internal Dispute Resolution Committee
HDI Global Specialty SE
GPO Box 3973
NSW 2001

Email: HGABdisputes@hdi-specialty.com

The Internal Dispute Resolution Committee will respond to Your queries or complaints within fifteen (15) working days.

The response will outline any reason for the decision and will inform You of any action the Insurer intends to take in resolution of the dispute.

Step 3: External Dispute Resolution scheme

If You are still not satisfied with the Insurer's response, You can seek an external review via the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), an ASIC approved external dispute resolution body.

This national body is for consumers and resolves certain insurance disputes between consumers and insurers at no cost to You.

The Australian Financial Complaints Authority contact details are:

Online: www.afca.org.au

Email: info@afca.org.au

Phone: 1800 931 678

Mail: Australian Financial Complaints Authority
GPO Box 3
Melbourne VIC 3001

The Insurer is bound by the independent review and determination of the AFCA.

You should note that use of the AFCA scheme does not preclude You from subsequently exercising any legal rights, which You may have if You are still unhappy with the outcome. Before doing so however, We strongly recommend that You obtain independent legal advice.

If Your complaint does not fall within the Australian Financial Complaints Authority's terms of reference, We will advise You to seek independent legal advice or give You information about any other external dispute resolution options (if any) that may be available to You.

Cooling-off period

If You are not satisfied with the cover provided by this Policy, You may cancel it within 14 days of receiving it and obtain a full refund less any non-refundable government charges and taxes that We have paid. You may notify Us by post or electronically. If You make a Claim for any incident within the 14-day period, You must pay Your annual Premium in full.

Private Legal information helpline

If You have a legal problem relating to Your personal affairs, You can call the confidential legal information helpline on (02) 8066 0162 for general information about Australian legal personal matters. Your call will be referred to a legal service provider who will be responsible for the information provided to You. There will be no cost to You for an initial 15 minutes consultation. The legal information helpline is available between 9am and 5pm AEST on weekdays (except public holidays).

The helpline is subject to fair and reasonable use and does not constitute reporting of a Claim. Information will be provided verbally and will not be put in writing. This helpline cannot provide advice in respect of a dispute You have with ARAG or the Insurer.

Document centre

As a client of ARAG You will have access to various helpful legal documents via ARAG's Document Centre to assist You with Your legal needs. All legal documents have been drafted by third party lawyers, not by ARAG and can be easily customised. These documents contain general information or are in the form of examples and templates drafted by lawyers and You should get Your legal adviser to review and customise them to meet Your specific circumstances before You make use of them. The use or completion of these documents is solely at Your risk.

A review service is available for the most complex documents at a separate additional fee to You. You will need to order the review service before You start building Your document if You require it. The review service is provided by a legal services provider and You would need to retain their services directly for a fee.

To the extent permitted by law, neither ARAG nor the Insurer makes any representations or warranties in respect of the accuracy, quality, standard or legal effect of any of its documents in the Document Centre or their suitability for Your use. The documents in the Document Centre do not and are not intended to constitute legal, financial, taxation or any form of business or professional advice. No lawyer-client, advisory or fiduciary relationship is formed between You and ARAG, the Insurer or any persons involved in the preparation of any of these documents by virtue of the provision of these documents to You.
